The meeting of the St. Louis Labor Council AFL-CIO Executive Board was called to order at 9:00 a.m. by President Robert A. Soutier.

A roll call of officers disclosed the following: Present: Robert A. Soutier, John Ebeling, Nancy Cross, Jim Dougherty, Tony Ellebracht, Chico Humes, Earline Jones, Kevin McNatt, Michael O'Mara, Kevin Patterson, Gary Reay, Dick Renna, Joe Schonlau, and David Zimmermann.

Soutier introduced Morris Johnson, President St. Louis Community College at Forest Park for an explanation of the proposed twelve-cent tax increase for the school. A motion was made, seconded and passed to endorse the proposed tax increase.

Paul Winslow from American Income Life presented to the Board a list of services he would be offering the affiliated member unions and stated that he would make follow-up calls.

President Soutier spoke to the Board about a proposed joint venture with the Red Cross. He then introduced Mark Turken and Joseph White from the Red Cross for a presentation on how organized labor can help the Red Cross move to level three disaster relief readiness. A discussion ensued and the Board was in agreement that we would continue discussions to see if we can help with this effort. The issue will be taken up at next month's Board meeting.
